

'Making business more virtuous: A Daoist approach'

Dr. Alicia Hennig
Harbin Institute of Technology, Shenzhen

Thursday, October 27, 2016
Rm 968, Henry Angus Building
2053 Main Mall
12:30-1:30pm

Abstract:

One of China's most prominent and influential philosophical strands is Daoism, which is concerned with the balance between human mankind and nature. This lecture explains how Daoism can be turned into a virtue ethics for business beneficial to both West and East.

Dr. Hennig will also be visiting the CAE weekly lunch at Klinck 238 on Wednesday at noon, where she will be informally discussing her other work on global justice and finance.